ORDER

This parties and their attorneys of record appeared before the Court on April 11, 2011 at a pretrial conference to establish trial details and to schedule and solidify trial deadlines. One issue discussed at the pretrial conference was the process by which class members directly involved in or otherwise attending the trial may enter the courthouse even if they lack the “valid photo ID” required by Nebraska General Rule 1.6(b).

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

Nebraska General Rules 1.6(b) mandates that persons entering the United States District Court for the District of Nebraska may be required to show a marshal or other United States District Court security officers a valid photo ID to enter the courthouse. However, Nebraska General Rule 1.6(k) permits an exemption from the requirement of Nebraska General Rule 1.6(b) that presentation of a “valid photo ID” may be necessary to enter the courthouse.

To the extent that certain class members in the above-captioned matter, including named Plaintiffs, may be called to testify as trial witnesses or will otherwise attend trial, but do not possess the “valid photo ID” required by Nebraska General Rule 1.6(b), they will nonetheless be permitted to enter the courthouse if they are escorted by Plaintiffs’ Counsel. A list of potential trial witnesses, named Plaintiffs and those who may attend the trial, who may not have “valid photo ID”, are attached hereto as Exhibit “A”.

The Court hereby orders that, pursuant to Nebraska General Rule 1.6(k), those class members and named Plaintiffs lacking a “valid photo ID” are exempted from Nebraska General Rule 1.6(b) and will be permitted to enter the courthouse, if they are escorted by one or more of the following individuals:

Shanon J. Carson, Esq.
Carolyn H. Cottrell, Esq.
Philip A. Downey, Esq.
Sarah Schalman-Bergen, Esq.
Todd M. Schneider, Esq.
Michael D. Thomas, Esq.
Christopher P. Welsh, Esq.
James R. Welsh, Esq.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 15th day of April, 2011.
